

Qatar 2022: Accommodation

The largest variety of accommodation options for the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™ is available from the Qatar Accommodation Agency (QAA), the official accommodation provider for the tournament. Choose from Cruise Ships, Apartments, Villas, Hotels or stay in a cabin in a Fan Village. Qatar offers something to suit everyone.

To book visit qatar2022.qa

- ◆ You will need your Ticket Application Number and Ticket Application email address for the validation process
- ◆ All accommodation bookings are linked to Hayya (Fan ID) for entry visa validation
- ◆ You can begin your Hayya (Fan ID) application without having booked accommodation. If you are an international fan, your Hayya (Fan ID) application will only be complete once your accommodation is validated through the Hayya portal

Alternative accommodation options are available for fans to book should they choose, such as Holiday Homes and staying with Family and Friends. Further information can be found at our home page qatar2022.qa

There will be up to 130,000 rooms available per day, or approximately 3.6m room nights across the tournament.

- ◆ Room rates start from USD $80 for 2 people per room / per night upwards, across a range of accommodation types
- ◆ Free wifi is available at most properties
- ◆ Cots for infants are available on request and subject to availability
- ◆ There is a two or three-night minimum stay, depending on the accommodation category and the time of booking
- ◆ Villas and apartments are booked as entire units. Studios and one bedroom apartments are also available for individuals to book
- ◆ For now, you need a match ticket to book accommodation and your accommodation dates must align with your match attendance
- ◆ You can book up to nine rooms/units under your profile per day. The nine rooms/units can be in different properties
- ◆ There are no restrictions on who can stay together in a room
- ◆ Dependents are defined as children under 18

Accommodation is being released in phases providing a range of accommodation types and prices throughout the whole sales process. So if you don't find what you are looking for, keep checking as new properties are released all the time

Accommodation can be transferred from one guest to another for a fee of 100 QAR (US $27.47)

For groups of 10 or more seeking to stay together, please contact us on enquiries@book.qatar2022.qa

Airport transit to accommodation is not provided, however accessible and affordable transport options for fans from taxis, metro bus and tram make movement around the country very easy

Fans are welcome to stay in neighboring countries and obtain a Matchday pass through Hayya to enter Qatar for the day. No accommodation is required for those entering only for one day. Hayya is only valid in the State of Qatar, and fans should check neighbouring countries' visa requirements before travelling

You can extend your stay by booking additional accommodation. Subject to availability you may be able to stay at your existing accommodation, or may need to move to another property. Any additional days will be a separate booking. The first booking cannot be amended or extended once you have checked in

Refunds are limited. There are options to transfer bookings, or resell via the accommodation agency which allows a maximum return of 80% of the value if successful. If cancellation is necessary please contact us directly

Accessible rooms are available. Contact QAA directly in order for the team to best provide for specific accessibility requirements

It is not possible to enter Qatar with alcohol. So don't pack anything in your case as it will be confiscated upon arrival in Qatar.

Alcohol will be available on cruise ships as well as many hotels and licensed restaurants and venues including dedicated fan zones

This information is valid for bookings through QAA as of July 2022. For up to date information please visit qatar2022.qa
Any questions? Contact us here.

